Stockholm, January 16, O. S.

THIS Day the Meeting of the Dyet of the States of this Kingdom was publiſhed. On Monday next that Aſſembly will ſit to do Buſineſs: The Choice of the Marſhal will then likewiſe be made: The Court ſeems inclined to have M. Lagerberg put into that Poſt; and it is thought the Election will fall upon him. The King of Sweden came to Stockholm on Friday laſt.

Genoa, Jan. 26, N. S. Yeſterday ſailed from hence His Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Leopard, Captain Medley Commander, bound for Great Britain, and will ſoon be followed by the Falmouth.

Lisbon, Feb. 3, N. S. Letters from Cadiz of the 17th paſt adviſe, that His Britannick Majeſty's Ship Durſley Galley, was arrived in that Bay, and that the Galleons were daily expected there. On the 22d paſt, arrived in this River a Ship of 50 Guns called the Thetis, being one of thoſe which were ſent two Years ago to the South-Seas by the French Weſt India Company; the Captain ſays, he touched at the Rio de Janeiro on the 22d of October laſt, and ſaw the Fleet which ſailed from hence on the 29th of May, happily arrived there, and was aſſured that they might be expected at Lisbon before the End of March next. On the 12th paſt His Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Lime entred this Harbour, the Colcheſter Man of War will ſail in a few Days for Gibraltar, and the Drake Sloop will proceed for the Downs on the 6th Inſtant.

Hambourg, Feb. 9, N. S. We have Advice, that M. Jagoſinsky the Czar's Miniſter, who a few Weeks ago came to the Court of Berlin, made ſeveral Journies from thence, to Mentz, to Francfort, and laſtly to the Court of the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg. He ſtaid three Days there, and had ſeveral Conferences with that Prince, who conſented to let him take with him to Moſcow the two Princes his Sons, one of 17, the other of 18 Years of Age. M. Jagoſinsky took thoſe two Princes with him to Leipſick, where he parted from them and went to Berlin to take an Audience of Leave of that Court. The two Princes were by M. Jagoſinsky's Direction conducted from Leipſick by one M. Leewenwolde, to a Place called Biegen about eight German Miles from Berlin. M. Jagoſinsky having left Berlin went to Biegen, whence he ſet out on the 29th of January, with the two Princes, towards Dantzick; from whence we learn that Quarters were provided againſt his coming, and that he was very ſoon expected there, on his Way to Moſcow.

Paris, Feb. 13. There will ſoon be made a Promotion of Dukes, in the Number of which will be M. de Biron and M. de Levi. His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty is at preſent in perfect Health; his Journey to this City, inſtead of being on the 15th, is only put off to the next Day.
